Muddy water coming out of the sink in there
And dirty sheets up on the bed
I can't get no picture on the TV screen
I can't stand the ones up in my head

I got the air turned down to very cold
But it ain't doing a bit of good
It ain't like there was a first resort
In this last chance for gas neighborhood

I was looking for freedom
I was looking for a good time
I was looking for a little space
A little place that was mine, all mine

I was going with my change of heart
Wanted no part of forever
I was looking for a blessing

When I said baby it's all for the better
Yeah, what do you know
I think I wound up where she told me to go

Of all the places man I broke down here
Shade tree mechanic told me son
I can't get no parts for this here make in here
But don't worry boy I'll get it done

Meanwhile I need to be back with her yesterday
Clock in this town don't seem to care
I'm finding fast this Godforsaken place
Is at least two weeks from everywhere

I was looking for freedom
I was looking for a good time
I was looking for a little space
A little place, some peace of mind

I was going with my change of heart
Wanted no part of forever
I was looking for a blessing

When I said baby it's all for the better
Yeah, what do you know
I think I wound up where she told me to go

This place ain't on no map
But how was I to know it's everywhere that she ain't at How did she know that I'd wind up where she told me to go
Where she told me to go

Muddy water coming out of the sink in there
