I don't want to be the one to say, "I'm sorry"
I don't want to be the one to take the blame
I don't want to be the one to throw it over
I don't want to be the one who feels ashamed

I don't want to be the one who thinks of nothing
I don't want to be the one to tell you what you have seen
After all this time, when I thought that you were mine
I just want to be the one to share this dream

All our past times should be forgotten
All our past times should be erased
I don't care, how much it costs, I don't count the loss
As long as I see your face again

You don't have to tell me when you're leaving
If it's half past one or maybe four
It makes no difference, where you think you're going
Please, remember not to slam that door

All our past times should be forgotten
All our past times should be erased
I don't care, how much it costs, 'cause I don't count the loss
As long as I see your face again

Lord, I don't care, how much it costs 'cause I don't count no loss
As long as I can see your face again
