Without wishing to cause you any pain
I got to push on through, baby
And if I take the chance of seeing you again
I just don't know what I would do, baby

And sometimes I think I'm gonna be just fine
All I got to do is go through it, baby
Then I hear those voices in the back of my mind
Telling me over and over and over that I blew it baby

(You had one chance)
(And you blew it)
(You may never get another chance)
You may never get another chance
(You had the floor)
You had the floor
(And you knew it)
And you knew it
(You can't blame it on your circumstance)
You can't blame it on your circumstance

At the risk of causing you a little pain
I'm going to have to forget you, baby
'Cause you broke my heart, left it out in the rain
And you'd do the same again if I let you, baby
(If I let you baby)

I would give anything to hold you in my arms
But you know I can't do that, baby
(Can't do that baby)
I guess I'll have to live with the choice that I have made
Even though deep down I still suspect that I blew it

(You had one chance)
You had one chance
(And you blew it)
And you blew it
(You may never get another chance)
You may never get another chance
(You had the floor)
You had the floor
(And you knew it)

You had the floor and you knew it
(You can't blame it on your circumstance)
Why did you do it?

(You had one chance)
One chance
(And you blew it)
And you blew it
(You may never get another chance)
You may never get another chance
(You had the floor)
You had the floor
(And you knew it)
And you knew it
(You can't blame it on your circumstance)
And you blew it
Why did you do it?
(You had one chance)

(You had one chance)
You had one chance
One chance
(And you blew it)
And you knew it
(You may never get another chance)
You may never get another chance
(You had the floor)
You had the floor
(And you knew it)
(You can't blame it on your circumstance)
You can't blame it on the circumstance

(You had one chance)
You had one chance
(And you blew it)
And you knew it, baby
You may never get another chance
(You may never get another chance)
Never get another chance
(You had the floor)
(And you knew it)
(You can't blame it on your circumstance)
You can't blame it on no circumstance

(You'd one chance)
You had one chance
You had one chance
(And you knew it)
(You may never get another chance)
But you blew it
And you blew it

(You had the floor)
You had the floor
(And you knew it)
You had the floor
(You can't blame it on the circumstance)
And you blew it
Yes, you blew it

(You had one chance)
You had one chance
(And you blew it)
You had one chance
(You may never get another chance)
You may never get another chance
(You had the floor)
You had the floor
(And you blew it)
And you blew it
