

Eric Clapton

"Someone Like You - Eric Clapton"

Visit "Someone Like You - Eric Clapton" on MotoLyrics.com

by Arthur Louis

I got up this morning and fell out of bed
Trying to make it to the door.
The wind was high, I didn't have much time,
Trying to find a man to score.

And then you came up on the other side
To brighten up my day.
I knew right away
That this could be my day.

Someone like you
Could make me change my ways.
Someone like you
Could turn the nights into days.

There you were, standing
On a crowded street.
You looked so good, though the air was bad,
Walking through the fog.

Chorus

I want to thank you, thank you now
For getting me back on my feet again.
I want to thank you, thank you now
For getting me back on my feet again.

Chorus

Chorus

Visit Eric Clapton page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.