Dont change your mind,
I aint got the time to sit and wonder.
Im doing fine.
If you decide to leave, I wont go under.

You know Ive come this far without you
It wont be too hard to be alone.
Ive got choices all around me,
So I wont be spending too much time at home.

[Chorus:]
Girl, Im gonna miss you.
Im gonna miss you, baby.
I cant forgive you,
Still Im gonna miss you, baby.

No, dont say a word.
I already heard that you dont love me.
In your state of mind,
I dont need to hear your side of the story.

Your friends all said we had a future
And I dont think I really want to know.
My friends keep telling me to lose you
And how glad theyll be when you decide to go.

[Chorus]

I broke my back to make you happy.
Sometime, somehow, someones got to care.
If you think youre better off without me,
Just remember, its a dirty world out there.

[Chorus]

Im gonna miss the ground you walk on,
Gonna miss the air you breathe.
Im just not quite happy, baby,
bout your crazy plans to leave.
