It's too bad I don't love you, for you have worried me
night and day
Till my heart begins to stammer and my hair is turning gray

It's too bad I don't need you, because we get along so good
good
You must be thinking, 'bout this time that my poor heart is made of wood

It's too bad I don't miss you, 'cause you are always on my mind
It's too bad I don't miss you, 'cause you are always on
my mind
I want to stay around your circle and learn to love you all the time
