Whatever Turns You On

Â© 2006 Eric Daubney, SoundCore Records

The night is young
The air is cold
Thinking about you's
Never getting old
And even though your gone
IÂ’m never letting go
I can't understand why u left me
Out in the cold
But I guess your right it was my fault
And I shouldnÂ’t have let you go

Im falling even more in love with you
Waiting here until u make the move
Sitting down pretending that im with you
Hoping that your thinking about me to

I no we had to draw the line

Just know a real love is hard to find
But now were on our own
And we got no where to go
Life without you is like an airplane
ThatÂ’s flying to slow
But before we crash and burn
Can we give it one more go

Im falling even more in love with you
Waiting here until u make the move
Sitting down pretending that im with you
Hoping that your thinking about me to

Im falling even more in love with you
Waiting here until u make the move
Sitting down pretending that im with you
Hoping that your thinking about me to
