Here she is once again,
like a flower from gods imagination And then we kiss, you just can miss nothing in this world can reach our attention

Now we don't have to wait until tomorrow we don't have to wait another day, yeah Tonight lets leave our pain and our sorrows cause I can feel, this time it's real

Riding high yeah,
when it come to you and I,
there is nothing but the sky

Riding high yeah,
when it comes to loving you,
there is nothing I can do Riding high, so high

Anxious hearts from the start,
I admit I was so afraid that you would hurt me But now I know it's a risk I'll have to take because I feel this time it's real

Riding high yeah,
when it come to you and I,
there is nothing but the sky

Riding high yeah,
when it comes to loving you,
there is nothing I can do Riding high, riding high

Open your heart, open your heart
open the curtain to your heart
Open your heart, open your heart
open the curtain to your heart

because I feel, it's real

Riding high yeah,
when it come to you and I,
there is nothing but the sky
Riding high yeah

Put your feet down on the floor
and you back against the wall
When you move it from side to side then you know your riding high

Put your feet down on the floor
and you back against the wall
When you move it from side to side
then you know your riding high

then you know your riding high
