Waiting in the ER room at the hospital
Praying every minute hoping she's ok
Her doctor comes out and says she is doing great
Waiting by her bedside, holding on to faith

Dear God, bless her sacred heart
Please help, I'm falling apart
I need a miracle from above
I give all of my love

She's doing better, finally at her home
I hold her hand while she sleeps and dreams
I have to leave. I kiss her, say goodbye
Tell her she's with me, as a tear comes out my eye

Dear God, bless her sacred heart
Please help, I'm falling apart
I need a miracle from above
I give all of my love

I say I love her, and I need her in my life
I hold on to one wish for her inside

Dear God, bless her sacred heart
Please help, I'm falling apart
I need a miracle from above
I give all of my love

Dear God, bless her sacred heart
Please help, I'm falling apart
I need a miracle from above
I give all of my love
