i wake myself up everyday if things had gone another way now would my grass be any greener? and as I'm struggling on my own i have to think I'm not alone give and take
we catch our breaks
we all learn to survive
(oh but) don't look now,
(said) don't look now
cuz here we are living the best days of our lives
(oh) these are the best days of our lives (oh) i fly around the world to spend my nights with strangers and their lovers i noticed happiness depends on if you're sharing with each other so when this craziness is through I'll spend my happiness with you give and take
we catch our breaks
(oh but) don't look now,
(said) don't look now
living the best days of our lives
(oh) these are the best days of our lives (oh)
and as we're walking through the fire isn't it great to be alive (oh oh oh)
give and take
(oh but) don't look now,
living the best days of our lives
(oh) these are the best days of our lives (oh) everybody let me hear you sing go give and take
(oh but) don't look now,

(I said) don't look now
(oh) these are the best days of our lives (oh)
these are the best days of our lives (oh) these are the best days of our lives (the best days of our lives)
these are the best days
these are the best dayayays
