You don't need nobody, knock on your door
You don't need nobody, knock on your door
If they're a mean mistreater
What good are they for?
You don't need nobody to push you down
You don't need nobody to push you down
In a cruel, cruel, world
Find better ground.
Let's go

In a time where I stop and ask myself if I'm out just out of my mind Cause I'm wondering why we don't choose love to get high?
And I think you should know the chance is there Cause it's all just all in my mind and then everyone from everywhere could know
And get to go
Let's go
Don't need no reason to say I told you so
Don't need no reason to say I told you so
Cause we all fall down
Let's get to go

In a time when I stop and ask myself if I'm out I'm out of my mind Cause I'm wondering why we can't use love to get high?
And I think you should know the answer's here
It's all it's all in my mind
And the people from over all this world could know
Let's get to go
