Wake up no time to hang around for joy
It's not gonna knock you on the head
Or kick you out of bed

All the trains keep leaving the seats are nailed down
The sign post is faded you can't leave town

When this town has a lease on your soul
It keeps getting slower now
Tried to get free but how?
When your situation dictates it all for you
And who knows how long you shook that feeling
All the trains keep leaving the seats are nailed down
The sign post is faded you can't leave town

It's been too long than you care to mention

Hey look at me I have grown wings
But they won't take flight
Hey look at me below the sea
I can see light

Once I drew a line
So you could get yours and I get mine
Wait when the floods are down
You can rely on me
Because I won't leave town

Town, town, town
