

Bluebottle Kiss "Six Wheels"

Six wheels rolling, rolling over my arms
If you don't notice then you don't notice anything
Do you?
The sky is sweating and the moon's turned to blood
Well I'm awake now or at least half-awake

Half the time it's frozen through
When I'm half awake
I turn it off and there's the truth
Until then.....
Us sea gulls can't fly to the moon
This dampened love won't pull us through
I'd love to hold it to the light
But not every star can burn that bright.
