And the more i lie perfectly still
More or less
Who can tell
And i let my hand go back to your face
Break a wish
Iron cage

But you, you must be real
Or having too long time
But you, you're too surreal
Switching through the place you find

Still, still, perfect and proud
Wear, tear
Half a cloud
Won't you be late, wait, lost in your bed
Make a wish
Rip it to shreds

But you, you must be real
Or having too long time
But you, you're too surreal
Switching through the face you find
