Mr. Nice guy, yeah last to be thought about
First one she's turning down, guess I'm mad
Mr. Nice guy, thought I'd come in last
Maybe I'll be better off ya, just chasing the X2
Well I took this chick that was lovely
A lobster for hours on I thought this girl was thinking of me
But when we off for dinner, she brought all of her friends
While now, everyone's playing gum like
When I feel baby all I come
I'm out here looking for a real deal
While this chick right here's looking for a free meal
Mr. Nice guy, yeah last to be thought about
First one she's turning down, guess I'm mad
Mr. Nice guy, thought I'd come in last
Maybe I'll be better off ya, just chasing the X2
I really want you to be
I can rebuild shine, yeah
But she prefers I seen you with he's a dog
Man am I just too old fashion,
I'm talking about passion, love everlasting,
I'm asking, if I was a jerk would I be the one
And mr. nice guy seem so broken hearted
Mr. Nice guy, yeah last to be thought about
First one she's turning down, guess I'm mad
Mr. Nice guy, thought I'd come in last
Maybe I'll be better off ya, just chasing the X2
Maybe I shouldn't listen, maybe not paying attention
Not look her in the eyes when she's speaking her mind
Not remember my temper, or never compliment her
Or never call her back and be late all the time Nah, I need to just keep on a nice girl is hard to find yeah
But when I find her love, I sure will give her mine
Mr. Nice guy, yeah last to be thought about
First one she's turning down, guess I'm mad
