So put your hearts in the air
Put your hearts in the
Put your hearts in the air
Put your hearts in the
Put your hearts in the
Put your hearts in the air

Please excuse me if I sound rude
Not a typical nine to five dude
I put my pants on one leg at the time
But they have chains, leather, and diamond lines

I start my weekend up on Monday
I rip a show in town on Tuesday
I feel a twitch without my melodies
I got no switch to stop my fantasies

So put your hearts in the air
You gotta love being you
Do it like I do
Hearts in the air
Don't be a fool
Do it like I do

Why should I care what they say?
Just want them out of my
'Cause I'm the king of my own life
So put your hearts in the air
You gotta love being you
Do it like I do

Please excuse me if I scared you
Just take a minute to prepare, dude
I'm gonna play dress-up
And do colored hair
Gonna sing my lungs out
'Till I pop some air

You keep telling me to grow up
Get a job and stop the kid stuff
Well, I hate to disappoint you then

'Cause I have walked the stage since times began

So put your hearts in the air
You gotta love being you

Do it like I do
Hearts in the air
Don't be a fool,
Do it like I do

Why should I care what they say?
'Cause I'm the king of my own life
So put your hearts in the air
You gotta love being you
Do it like I do

Why should I care what they say
Just want them out of my way
I'll be warm when they're cold
I'll be young when they're old
I'm gonna be wrong but so damn right
(So listen up)

So live your life, live your life
Be what you wanna be
It's coming from inside
I hear it pumping to the beat
So I keep the seats jumpin'
'Cause I heat-seek spend out heat like
Every other week, week
Won't you come and
Take a sneak preview
Into the spot right where
My rap life continues

Doing what I want to do, now
Living the dreams
So the clouds came down,
So every time they want a piece of me
I give them what I do best
A piece of my sound

(Repeat chorus)

So put your hearts in the air
