Come and rip my bleeding heart out
I can't take this pain anymore now
All I do is think of you tonight
And now I'm so lonely
Just me and my radio, no
I keep thinking girl you ain't lonely
All I can do is picture you with someone new
Every minute, hour, second now
Every little part of me

Why do I feel something ain't right
I don't believe you tonight
I'll be here on my own
Just me and my radio
Talk to me girl
Give me a sign
I don't believe you tonight
Tell me you're all alone
Just you and your radio
(Just you and your radio)

I was never the jealous guy
Now, got this feeling, don't let me be right
All I do is think of you tonight
And now I'm so lonely
Just me and my radio, no
I keep thinking girl you ain't lonely
All I can do is picture you with someone new
Every minute, hour, second now
Every little part of me

Why do I feel something ain't right
I don't believe you tonight
I'll be here on my own
Just me and my radio

Talk to me girl
Give me a sign
I don't believe you tonight
Tell me you're all alone
Just you and your radio
(Just you and your radio)

Just answer your phone if you ain't alone
'Cause girl it ain't right to fool me, no
I wanna be wrong
So what's going on
And baby you know I need to know
(Just you and your radio)
(Just you and your radio)

Why do I feel something ain't right
I don't believe you tonight
(I don't believe you)
Just me and my radio
Talk to me girl
(Give me a sign)
I don't believe you tonight
Tell me you're all alone
