Lyrics & Music By: The Corrs

I see you, walking everyday, with a smile beneath frown,
But I won't look away, yeah, what does it mean?
What's there to see? If I look closer, closer,
Closer, closer, closer, closer, closer, closer,
Where are you going? And what are you thinking at all?
Your eyes show nothing more, than a dazed oblivion,
What does it mean? What will I see?
When I look closer, closer, closer, closer, closer,
Closer, closer, closer, ah, yeah,
You don't see me, watching everyday, my smile could warm your frown,
And I'd never look away never look away,
There's more to me There's more to me,
Than what you see, when you look closer, closer,
closer,
Closer, closer, closer, closer, closer, closer, closer,
closer,
Closer, ah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Closer, closer, closer, no, no, no,
Fade Out
