I know you dream a lot
Holding on to lies
And wait around
For someone to know where you hide
In your dreams, you feel a lot
But you keep it all inside
And you close your eyes
It helps keep you alive
The experience of lovin'
Won't take all the pain away
Just understanding for the first time
What you feel inside
Love is in your life
And having come this far
Cherishing your dreams
You may have realized now
How they help keep you alone
The experience of lovin'
Won't take all the pain away
Just understanding for the first time
What you feel inside
Love is in your life
Leave the dreams behind
Breathing in the scent of love
Leave the dreams behind
Sensing life in everything
Under the sky
The experience of lovin'
Won't take all the pain away
Just understanding for the first time
What you feel inside
