'hey maria'

Marie, you've never been in love it's over rated,
Exaggerated, by the T.V. and media
And your eyes, they've never been so bright but I couldn't see them, I was blinded all along
And their lies, they've always made you cry
We could kick them all in the face if you want to

Chorus

Hey, hey maria, is it everybody's fault? is it
everybody's fault?
Hey, hey maria, is it everybody's fault? is it
everybody's fault?

You look dumb, with the places you've come from but you couldn't
Change if you tried and you never really tried
And your life, if it wasn't beautiful you'd give it up
With just a shake, of your silly little head
Goodbyes, they've always made you cry
We could kick them all in the face if you want to

Chorus

Just let them get a look at you
