(Dickie Peterson & Dieter Saller)

I came in bleeding, crying from the pain

My woman said, "Oh no, not again!"

There was a row in the town tonight

A man went down but I got out alright

I got out alright

I got out alright

Oh yeah.

I came in bleeding, crying from the pain

My woman said, "Oh no, not again!"

There was a row in the town tonight

A man went down but I got out alright.

Don't patch me up, I got to walk

Out on the streets they're all starting to talk

The cops and the cons, they're all starting to say

My love for you killed a man today.

Gunfight in the heart of town

I don't know his name but a man went down

He was long and tall and oh-so-mean

With a bleeding on his face and a bullet in his spleen!

They got south down to Mexico

No questions asked, ain't nobody know

I killed a man, he desearved to die

I love you baby, but I must survive.

You can't come, I have to go alone

I'll try to call you on the telephone

Don't try to find me cause I won't be found

I'm running from the man and I'm down on the bound.

Gunfight in the heart of town

I don't know his name but a man went down

He was long and tall and oh-so-mean

With a bullet in his face and a bullet in his spleen!

Ooooooohhh, Yeh!

Gunfight in the heart of town

Don't know his name but a man went down

He was long and tall and oh-so-mean

With a grin on his face and a bullet in his spleen!

I go south down to ol' Mexico

No questions asked, ain't nobody know

I killed a man, he desearved to die

I love you baby, but I must survive.
