

Eric Stone

"Haole Hawaiian Christmas"

Visit "Haole Hawaiian Christmas" on MotoLyrics.com

CHORUS:

WeÂ're gonna have a haole Hawaiian Christmas, WeÂ'll walk down to the beach and decorate our mango tree.

It may be snowing where you are and you miss us. We miss you too but we sure love Waikiki.

At Christmas time the locals say, Â"Mele Kalikimaka.Â"
Christmas dinner is spam or spam and rice.
We may not have turkey on the table but the luau and those Mai Tais sure are nice.

REPEAT CHORUS

Down at the beach they adorn the neck of Duke Kahanamoku, Christmas leis and holly they flew in.
The sun is always warm here in December. And weÂ'll pretend the sand is snow here once again!

REPEAT CHORUS

SPOKEN:

Take it boys! Hawwww!

REPEAT CHORUS

In the South Pacific hula girls will dance for you and sing Hawaiian Christmas songs all day.
Their skin is tan and legs are long as palm trees, and if you charm them you might get a Christmas lei!

REPEAT CHORUS

We miss you too, but we sure love Waikiki, we miss you too, but we sure love Waikiki!

Visit Eric Stone page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

