Passion:

Strick nine rules the mind on the verge of destruction Blood starts to boil like a lyrical combustion, eruption Insane no pressure no pain, niggas falling off it's strain to maintain

They be killing me, trying to preach to me, teach to me
I got a phd in funkology

You got your bachelors and your masters in the field of dramatics

The lyrical are bringing the static from the attic, so cock your automatics

I've had it up to here, you niggas are in danger

You better stand clear, no hugs no love and kiss mainstream america

They just ain't ready for this, cause I'm nice as shit Niggas be having fits, the squad of def be smacking
