One in a million
but stuck in the crowd
raising backwards
Fighting the time

this is where i wanna be
just let your spirit free
hear me out;
the higher you climb
the more will you forget

On the top of the world
when you're all alone
and your tears have gone dry (tears gone dry)
You can do anything
just give it a try
Hold you, feel you, arise above it all

On the top of the world...

(aihaai)

And difference passed us by
and loneliness was grace
'bout you and I
(you and I)

This is where I wanna be
just let your spirit free
Hear me out;
the higher you climb
the more will you forget

On the top of the world
when you're all alone
and your tears have gone dry (tears gone dry)
You can do anything
just give it a try
Hold you, feel you, arise above it all

On the top of the world...
(aihaai)

(aihaai)
when you're all alone
and your tears have gone dry (tears gone dry)
You can do anything
just give it a try

when you're all alone
and your tears have gone dry (tears gone dry)
You can do anything
just give it a try

On the top of the world
when you're all alone
and your tears have gone dry (tears gone dry)
You can do anything
just give it a try
Hold you, feel you, arise above it all

You can do anything
