My word is all I have
So I surrender
One more time
And I can't go back
It's all around me
Wears me out

I'm going places that I've never been
Uneasy counting down
Ready or not I wait for the shot
My feet won't touch the ground

Your word is all I've got
So I believe you
One last time
But I won't come back
What broke into me
Wipes me out

I'm going places that I've never been
Uneasy counting down
Ready or not I wait for the shot
My feet won't touch the ground

It's a tight race
Someone's gonna finish last
It goes around
And if I fall behind
There'll be no time
No one to catch up with
And no finish line

I'm going places that I've never been
Uneasy counting down
Ready or not I wait for the shot
My feet won't touch the ground
