All of the thoughts I left you with they made you rise made you sing Try not to ease the pain
I see it in your eyes
I know that you are tired
there's sadness in your lies
now you know it's true
there's nothing here but you

sleep little angel
close your eyes and dream of me
all the things I've done
I'm falling
close your eyes and dream of me
I'm here little angel let your sorrows be
All the things I've done
I'm falling

Every little word you've said
I know that you have tried Nothing where you came from nothing where you hide Try now to ease the pain
I see it in your eyes
