Lift your head up high
It's nothing
You have just begun
Wonder why I move uneasy
You are never gone

Close your eyes
And you will see
You're leaving nothing but grace tonight
It'd all be better if you don't care
You're leaving nothing

I am down
But I'm not weary
Though it's said and done
Wonder why I move uneasy
Bet you dance tonight

Close your eyes
And you will see
You're leaving nothing but grace tonight
It'd all be better if you don't care
You're leaving nothing
