Slightly confused by the headlights
Why are they coming my way?
I am cold like November
I'm broken I stumbled
Now time is up and I'll pay

Here in this room
Where the lonely aspire
I've traveled for days
Still I don't feel alive
'Cause life is the sunshine
That withers inside me
Now I can't wake by your day

Bent out of shape in the spotlight
It happens when I'm away
Mystery white boy
I'm finally leaving
Now it all fades to grey

Here in this room
Where the lonely aspire
I've traveled for days
Still I don't feel alive
'Cause life is the sunshine
That withers inside me
Now I can't wake by your day
