Verse 1:

Try and find me on your side
The curtains drawn and we've survived
I just wanna take a turn for the worse with you
With you
Close the window, steam appears
Let's scribe our names with hearts on the bathroom mirror

The state of our relationship's
Code red now that we're done with it
I've got little or nothing more to say to you
You're a still and happy mess

Chorus:

Hit the dance floor
Save romance for
I just wanna take a turn for the worse with you
With you
Take what I've got Girl, we're so hot
Let's set these sprinklers off and let nature take it's course

Verse 2:

They say we're both little people that grow under the spotlight
We put aside the fact that together we're just right
And never mind
Never mind this heated mess we've got ourselves in
'Cause the truth is that I miss you

Bridge:

You and I, we stopped the time
We killed the tenseness
Lost the rhyme
We're coming from our triumphs only to announce
The start of our decline
(2x)

Chorus (2x)
