All of it's yours but I thought it was mine
I know some things are being left behind
I cannot explain why it happens all the time
Some of it's broken and some of it's wrong
We can't be together cause we don't belong
I think I said I loved you but you are already gone

Don't ask me one more time
Why I'm not around
I'm somewhere between a rock
and a cold hard place
True love is harder and harder to find
I saw you dancing like you're out of my mind
I never forget how I told you
-you could be mine
What happened that night is such a mystery
I cannot believe it's now history
I'll do anything
don't wanna live in pain and agony

Don't ask me one more time
Why I'm not around
I'm somewhere between a rock
and a cold hard place
Don't ask me one more time
Why I'm not around
I'm somewhere between a rock
and a cold hard place

Don't ask me one more time
Why I'm not around
I'm somewhere between a rock
and a cold hard place
Don't ask me one more time
Why I'm not around
I'm somewhere between a rock
and a cold hard place
Yeah a rock and a cold hard place
