I probably want you know
If you wanna stick around

Spending all day trying to get rid of every plan
Spending money buying nothing tryna' be a free man
Ending up in random places running into you
Talking to myself bout all the things that we could do

I probably want you know
Tomorrow il leave you
If you wanna stick around
You better leave me too

Let tonight come together
I know what we want
Baby you know
We might fall in love
But we probably won't

Drinking myself into walking up to you and then
Talking myself out of minor problem with the doorman
Tryna reach the focus, tryna walk straight up to you Repeating lines about those different things that we could do

I probably want you know
Tomorrow il leave you
If you wanna stick around
You better leave me too

Let tonight come together
I know what we want
Baby you know
We might fall in love
But we probably won't

Lead me to believe in me
To leave you
Tomorrow
I do believe that you will leave
Tomorrow
Please say you do

I do believe in you
That you believe me too

I probably want you know
Tomorrow il leave you
If you wanna stick around
You better leave me too

I probably want you know
Tomorrow il leave you
If you wanna stick around
You better leave me too

Let tonight come together
I know what we want
Baby you know
