That 73 monte carlo had a car load of Schitz and innocence
Half a pack of daddy's cigarettes and
A cassette of jimmy hendrix
We parked beside the railroad tracks Kicked back and wonder what life would be like if we were president
Let another fade away, wastin' time well spent

(Chorus:)

A million miles of dirt road dust
Learnin' love or lovin' lust
Tastin' life as it came to us
On a dead end road that had no end
Wishin' we could make time fly
Not knowin' it was flyin' by While we were makin' plans that didn't make sense
Wastin' time, wastin' time, wastin' time
Well spent

She matched my tuxedo to a picture in those pictures
On my floor
As i stared at me, i could finally see What she saw when she said she couldn't see me anymore
But i'll never forget the night we parked
That prom night ride on the side of a road we've never been
And let another day fade away
Wastin' time well spent

(Chorus)

Bridge:

Bitter sweet what might have been Comes to mind now and then
Makes me wanna go back again
Waste some time
Waste some time, waste some

Time well spent

(Chorus)
