(Jim Brickman/R. Hamm/M.Q. Harris)

Fire sightÂ... Winter snowÂ...
Lights are on the tree
The world is on a glow again
With all these seasons bring
And though it comes around each year
The morning of the season
Sometimes disappears
Oh it's good to be reminded

CHORUS I

Christmas is for girls and boys
Trimming trees and Santa's toys
It's mom and dad gran' and grandpa tooÂ...
Christmas is a sacred birth
A chance for hope and peace on Earth
It's everything that we hold dear and true
'Cause most of all, Christmas is the love that lives
Inside of me and you

Sleepy eyes are open wide
And tiny hearts beat fast
To celebrate the morning
Just like every Christmas past
We gathered close to family
Embracing all that's been
And all that's yet to be
Oh it's good to be reminded

CHORUS II

Christmas is for candle light
Jingle Bells and silent night
Friends from long ago
And friends and we've made anew
Christmas is a sacred birth
A chance for hope and peace on Earth
It's everything that we hold dear and true
'Cause most of all, Christmas is the love that lives
Inside of me and you

BRIDGE

From where it all began
A night in Bethlehem
'It reaches out to all of us
Reminds us once again

CHORUS III

Christmas is for everyone
The greatest gift of all the stuffs
The sun that shines on all the world
The light that leads us through
Christmas is a sacred birth
A chance for hope and peace on Earth
It's everything that we hold dear and true
'Cause most of all, Christmas is the love that lives
Inside of me and you

'Most of all, Christmas is the love that lives
Inside of me and you
