Relations are what we are living for.
Relations, they are not always for long.
Relations, among the stars in the sky.
Relations, sometimes they end; you cry.

She loves her dog
He loves cats
They're your friends.
I love you. And I know, that is true.
Don't you see, baby?

(Hook)

Relations, for business or just for fun.
Relations, sometimes only for one night.
Relations, among the stars in the sky.
Relations, sometimes they end; you cry.
They end; you cry!

(Repeat chorus, twice)

(Hook)
