Normal

Everybody does it, thats what everybody says
As they smoke their cigarettes on friday night
And if your still a virgin by the time that your a junior
Then the rumor goin round is you aint right

Maybe I'm hard headed or a little bit old fashioned
But I always had a hard time fittin' in So when they rolled their eyes at me
And told me I aint normal
I always took it as a compliment

Where i'm from normal is highscool girls having kids Marrin' the boys that you grew up with
They said girl get your head on straight
Sit around and dream all day
far away look in your eyes aint normal
I said ya whats so great about normal

Somebodies gotta wear the roller skates down at the sonic
That never really fit into my plans
So when I up and moved a thousand miles away from home
Nobody in my town could understand

Where i'm from normal is doin wat your mamma did Marrin' the boys that you grew up with
They say girl get your head on straight
Sit around and dream all day
Far away look in your eyes aint normal
I said ya whats so great about normal

I dont know wat happens next
But thats okay
Because I know what would have happend
If I stayed

Where i'm from normal is doin wat your mamma did Marrin' the boys that you grew up with

They say girl get your head on straight
Sit around and dream all day
Far away look in your eyes aint normal
I said ya whats so great about normal

Yea whats so great about normal
