Yeah, the sun comes up
In a coffee cup
Waitress please I've had enough

Lord, I can't believe what I see
How could you be alone?
When you could sit right here beside me girl
And make yourself at home

I've been to Memphis
And Muscle Shoals
And I love a woman
What I don't know

Yeah, when the sun goes down
In another town
Bartender please another round

Lord, I can't believe what I see
How could you be alone?
When you could sit right here beside me girl
And make yourself at home

I've been to Houston
And San Antonio
And I love a woman
What I don't know

Sally she had big ones
Susie had some too
Allison had little ones
What hate to go to school

And I make my bed
Where I lay my head
'Cause I wish I heard what she just said

Lord, I can't believe what I see
How could you be alone?
When you could sit right here beside me girl
And make yourself at home

I've been to L.A.
And El Paso
I love a woman
What I don't know
All hey docedo

Sally she had big ones
Susie had some too
But Allison had little ones
What hate to go to school

Hey I make my bed
Where I lay my head
And I wish I heard what she just said

Lord, I can't believe what I see
How could you be alone?

I've been to
And where I go
I love a woman
What I don't know

What I don't know
What I don't know
What I don't know
What I don't know, hey
