I don't have a PhD, I'm a simple man but if you ask me
About my philosophy, all I'd have to tell ya Is I know wrong from right, well, it's mostly black and white
But it does get gray sometimes that's when I remember

But daddy said, "Boy when you've got to choose Which road to take all you've got to do is"

You make your mama proud and let your mama know You'd be nowhere without her prayers and faith and hope
Make your mama smile and know without a doubt
That everything works out when you make your mama

But you can make this world a better place if you

You make your mama proud and let your mama know You'd be nowhere without her prayers and faith and
You make your mama smile and know without a doubt That everything works out when you make your mama
proud

Which road to take all you've got to do is"

You make your mama proud and let your mama know You'd be nowhere without her prayers and faith and

Make your mama smile, you know without a doubt
That everything works out when you make your mama
proud

Yeah, you're gonna make your mama proud
You know, you make your mama proud It's your [Incomprehensible]
