Praise to You, Oh God
Honor to Your name
For You've seen fit to love me
I'm astounded and amazed

And when I'm weak You rescue me
And You give and I take
And You love through mistakes
And when I am down to my last thread of faith
You give, oh, You give

Praise to You, Oh God
Honor to Your name
I am a living portrait
Of Your extravagant good grace

And when I'm weak, You rescue me
And You give and I take
And You love me through mistakes
And when I am down to my last thread of faith
You give

Hope when I'm hopeless
Comfort and peace
Knowing that You see the smallest of needs
At the moment I reach for You, You're waiting for me

And You give and I take
And You love me through mistakes
And when I am down to my last thread of faith
You give, oh, You give over and over, You give
