Shine in the shine why don't you shine mr. abraham
Shine on the people you love
Shine in the light of day and shine in the dark of night
Shine now goldenboy shine

I wasn't there when you left me
I wasn't there when you told me not to stay
But I won't be a stranger, not today (no no)
Why shouldn't I feel happy?
Why should I feel like I was serving time?
When everyone I know was driving by
So come on

Shine in the shine why don't you shine mr. abraham
Shine on the people you love
Shine in the light of day and shine in the dark of night
Shine now goldenboy shine

If this is it, I'm sorry
If this is all we've struggled for so long
Then abraham's been lying to our song (yes he has)
What if I say I miss you
What if I say I promise not to stay
Our house is full of strangers anyway
So come on

Shine in the shine why don't you shine mr. abraham
Shine on the people you love
Shine in the light of day and shine in the dark of night
Shine now goldenboy shine

Why shouldn't I feel happy?
Why should I feel like I was serving time?
When everyone I know is driving by
So come on

Shine in the shine why don't you shine mr. abraham
Shine on the people you love
Shine in the light of day and shine in the dark of night
Shine now goldenboy shine

Shine in the shine why don't you shine mr. abraham

Shine on the people you love
Shine in the light of day and shine in the dark of night
Shine now goldenboy shine

Shine in the shine why don't you shine mr. abraham
Shine on the people you love
Shine in the light of day and shine in the dark of night
Shine now goldenboy shine
