Bring your heart home, quit your wandering
Don't you get tired of living alone
I'll be waiting if you ever change your mind
And bring your heart home

Bring your heart home, break the change loose
Restless chains on your suckled mind
I still love you and you're welcome love still lives here
Bring your heart home

Bring your heart home, break the change loose
Restless chains on your suckled mind
I still love you and you're welcome love still lives here
Bring home
