

Ernest Tubb

"I'll Still Take The Back Seat For You"

Visit "I'll Still Take The Back Seat For You" on MotoLyrics.com

I Still Take a Backseat For You

When life's dawn seems to shake you and all your friends forsake you
I still take a backseat for you
Though your troubles may be plenty
In your pocket not one penny
I still take a back seat for you
The kind of love I have for you my (?) is the kind that comes right from my soul
It's the kind that keeps on giving and as long as I keep living I still take a back seat for you

You may wind up in the gutter
Be turned down by your own mother
I still take a back seat for you
Your own family may disown you
Even claim they've never known you
I still take a backseat for you
The kind of love I have for you dear
Is the love that comes right from my soul
It's the kind that keeps on giving and as long as I keep living
I still take a backseat for you

Visit Ernest Tubb page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.