Yes I've got lots of miles but lots of mem'ries

And I wouldn't set the miles back if I could

Cause whenever I get blue I know exactly what to do

Just retravel all those miles in memories

You say that all those miles are showing on me

Well I'll admit I had some rough ones way back when

But for every mile there holds a story left untold

Back there in my book of memories

Cause I've got lots of miles...

[ steel ]

Now as faces and places come before me

Making up my full book of memories

And I wouldn't ever dare one page to soil or tear

I might want to review them all some day

Yes I've got lots of miles...
