Seaman's Blues

(Chorus)

I'm on my way to Italy from the Gulf of Mexico

Riding on a tanker, and feeling mighty low

My good gal's behind me, no lovin' for so long

I'm going back to Texas, cause that's where I belong

Nights are so lonely on the ocean

There's too much time to dream of yesterday

If only I could only carry out my notion

I'd hit the trail for Texas right away

(Repeat chorus)

I never thought when I was leavin'

I could get so blue out on the sea

But it'll bet you after all this grieving

It's that good old Texas soil for me

(Repeat chorus)
