

Ernest Tubb"When A Soldier Knocks And Finds Nobody Home"

Visit "When A Soldier Knocks And Finds Nobody Home" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm alone with all my sorrow it's so hard to face tomorrow
'Cause I knocked and no one met me at the door I have asked the next door neighbor what you packed and went away for
But they only say, you don't live here no more

When I sailed across the blue, I thought I could count on you
But I've come back home sweetheart to find you've gone

It's a shame you couldn't be here what a sorry sight to see here
When a soldier knocks and finds nobody home

When I sailed across the blue, I thought I could count
on you
But I've come back home sweetheart to find you've
gone
It's a shame you couldn't be here what a sorry sight to
see here
When a soldier knocks and finds nobody home

Visit Ernest Tubb page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.