all the hours I've been away all the flowers you wouldn't take I don't blame you
I can't feel
I wanna take you, but I can't steal

you're such a waste
you're such a waste

this is no ordinary love
and it's not what you've been dreaming of never ending game of cat and mouse there's no going back
when I get you in my mouth

please baby put me down nobody's gonna stop us now
before that black cloud comes back around back around
back around
they come back around

all the hours I've been awake I don't blame you, I can't feel Wanna take you, but I can't steal

you're such a waste

(back around)back around (black cloud)back around (back around)back around (black cloud
