"Unchained Melody"

Visit "Unchained Melody" on MotoLyrics.com

It's the unheard melody
That could set you free
It's the unchained melody
You were meant to sing

Sometimes when the walls are falling down
Eyes are closed mind's in doubt
So well alone and loneliness is hard to take

You had such regrets you know them well
Nightmares torn you from your home

You're out alone and this truth is hard to face

Can you hear it coming through the night
The twilight's silence starts to cry
You're hoping oh god for a sound a sign a' life

If you wait long enough you'll hear
Oh oh the call of the rescuer
Coming on the whispered wind through the night
