"I Love You"

There's a girl somewhere waiting for you, what she wants is a man to make her dreams come true, she wants roses everyday, and she wants to hear you say, these three words that mean so much, more than a kiss, more than a touch, I love you now and forever, I love you, were gonna stay together, I love you, now and forever, I love you were gonna stay together, every beat of my heart, plays a symphony, baby I am the words, and you are the melody, love like that is hard to find, it's sweeter than strawberry wine, it's as warm as the sun, and deeper than a river runs, I love you, now and forever, I love you, were gonna stay together, I love you, now and forever, I love you, were gonna stay together
