i gave you my heart ,i gave you my soul,you promised to love me till we both grew old,don't make a promise that you can't keep,cause when your in love,love runs much too deep,you only call me when you need me,when your lonely and your feeling blue,you lead me on and then deceive me ,why do you treat me like you do,one day you will find that i won't be there,ill find someone new, someone who really cares,the phone will keep ringing,there will be no hello,it's the final curtain,the end of the show,you only call me when you need me,and whisper in my ear,i love you's you lead
you do,you only call me when you need me ,when your lonely and your feeling blue,you lead me on and then deceive me ill go on living without you
