Silence

Stretching out between us

I dream of a presence

With essence

And absence of doubt

Come closer

Come and stay with me now

Help me reconcile

Come and stay a while

And I will find a home

Because we love till the end

We love till the end of the day

Of the day

Distant

Shifty-eyed and restless

I dream of a presence

With essence

And absence of doubt

Come closer

Come and stay with me now

Help me reconcile

Come and stay a while

And I will find a home

Because we love till the end

Of the day
