Photographs is falling to the floor
Now again I'm trying to take control
Loose myself in this space
Make a noise, leave a trace
Looking for something which wasn't really there
Honestly I'm screaming out
Honestly I'm falling now apart
Take these memories, try to fall asleep
Crying doesn't make any sense

Afraid of the dark
Time is ticking
As the last leaf falls off the tree
(In the autumn)
You're falling away from me

Surrender, say goodbye
My empty heart, is going dry
Predictable to get so strong
Predictable to get so wrong
Once again
I've shut my door
Once again I've lost control
Make a noise, light my life
My empty heart, is all a lie

Afraid of the dark
Time is ticking
Afraid of one life
The Sun is missing
As the last leaf falls of the tree
(Just like in autumn)
You're leaving me

I've shut my door
Once again I've lost control
